Chapter 1 by Logan Kane

The ship is gone and so is the rest of the team. Around you lies only darkness.

Chapter 2 by Skeld

The lone man walked for a long time. He could not believe what was happening. Just the day before, he was partying with his team, the Earthlings had finally reached Mars and under his supervision, they had discovered how to inhabit this waste land. He finally had achieved his goal in life. But...

As he woke on the Terrapod, he knew that something was wrong. It was too quiet and soon he learned that they had left him. But WHY? that was the question he needed answering. Was someone jealous? No! that was a stupid concept. Did something come up and they had to leave without notice? No again. It was moronic to think that the crew would take action without the supervision of the Captain. But, in some dark corner of brain, he had a thought that was near idiotic...

He had laughed at that thought, but now, he was not so sure about it being wrong. Well! he only had to look at the facts. He was a trans-human, a being far superior and efficient than his ancestors in every way. His whole body was
